Why The Los Angeles Men's Bible Conference (LAMBC)?

In the urban community and our country as a whole, there is a void of spiritual truth. To counter this, men must strive after God; submit themselves and their ministries to the authority of God's Word.

We must regain our dependence and reverence for the Word of God. The LAMBC provides a conference in the Urban Community that is biblically oriented and philosophically consistent with Scripture. Each year we consider several important areas of ministry from a scriptural standpoint to help men counter the drift from biblical authority.

Co-sponsors: The Los Angeles Bible Training School (LABTS) has been training leaders in the urban community for 40 years. Paul Felix has served as President since 2002. It is his desire that the LABTS continue to serve the community by training those who will train others. Under the leadership of Dr. John MacArthur, The Master's Seminary, has been training men from around the globe for 20 years. Both support the LAMBC as a means to fulfill a calling to train others who edify the body of Christ and bring glory to God.

This year, LAMBC will train men by addressing the topic, Act Like Men. We look around and see the decaying family and moral chaos in the world. Why? One reason is the lack of men to occupy positions of influence in the home and marketplaces of our communities. Isn't time for men to answer God's call to lead and set examples of godliness? Isn't it time for the men of our churches to nurture our sons and daughters and reach our neighbors for the cause of Christ? Unquestionably, Yes. This year's conference will be a call to be biblical men for the cause of Christ. Please join us as we hear the Word of God proclaimed and make inroads to better our churches and community.

*They will be as
mighty men,
Treading down the enemy in the mire of
the streets in battle;
And they will fight,
for the Lord will be
with them; And the riders on horses will be put to shame.
(Zech 10:5)*
